Youth Commission

PROJECTS + GOALS

- Annually, the Commission considers what projects or goals it would like to focus on throughout the next year.
- Item was introduced to the Commission at the October meeting.
  - Feedback from last year's Commission
  - New or trending topics for consideration
- Critical work to help guide and inform future discussions and productivity of the Commission.

INITIATIVES OF THE PREVIOUS YOUTH COMMISSION

Substance Abuse Subcommittee	Communications Subcommittee	Teen Center & Events Subcommittee
Review current resources and local policies related to substance abuse, and make recommendations regarding education and programs to provide information and current resources available to teens and their families.	Create a general “Teens in Redondo Beach” social media account utilizing Instagram. Determine the focus of future posts including strategies and frequency. Consider alternate means of communication, when necessary, while keeping in mind the creation of a one-stop shop resource for teen-related information that ensures accessibility.	Provide guidance to staff on the re-opening of the Perry Park Teen Center, and provide ongoing support for teen programs, services, and events, held throughout the City.
