

how to do
creative placemaking

An Action-Oriented Guide to Arts in Community Development

National Endowment
for the Arts

Table of Contents

VIII How This Book Is Organized

1 So How Do You Do Creative Placemaking?

BY JASON SCHUPBACH

Chapter 1: Inclusive Planning + Equitable Development

6 How Creativity and Culture Can Contribute to Community Planning

BY LAURA ZABEL

10 Equity in Practice: Strategies from Alternate ROOTS'
History of Creative Placemaking

BY CARLTON TURNER

16 Understanding Arts and Culture in Equitable Development

BY JEREMY LIU

20 Stitching It Together: Community Planning as Creative Act

BY TOM BORRUP

28 The Role of Performing Arts in Place

BY JENNA MORAN

32 Case Study: Takoma Park, MD - Working with Dancers and Residents to Plan the Future of a Transit Corridor

Chapter 2: Economic Opportunity

38 Bringing Back Main Street: How Community Development Corporations and Artists Are Transforming America's Troubled Commercial Corridors

BY SETH BEATTIE

42 Case Study: New Haven, CT - Using Empty Storefronts as Catalysts for Economic Revitalization

46 The Human-Scale Spark

BY ESTHER ROBINSON

50 Strategic Planning for Arts, Culture, and Entertainment Districts

BY AMANDA J. ASHLEY

56 Case Study: Dubuque, IA - Creating an Arts Master Plan for a Historic Millwork District

60 Can Arts Drive Rural Economic Development?

BY CHRIS BECK AND TRACY TAFT

68 Case Study: Ajo, AZ - Reimagining a Historic School and Town Center

Chapter 3: Community Identity + Belonging

74 Building Economy and Community with Cultural Assets

BY BEN FINK AND MIMI PICKERING

78 Ethics of Development: A Shared Sense of Place

BY MARÍA LÓPEZ DE LEÓN

82 Case Study: Los Angeles (Willowbrook), CA - Understanding Local Cultural Assets

86 How Artists Share (in) Place: A Journey to Oglala Lakota Land

BY JUDILEE REED

90 Art: A Way of Life in Native Communities

BY LORI POURIER

96 Case Study: Olympia, WA - Celebrating Community Identity

Chapter 4: Arts + Government

102 How Can a Planning Authority Work with an Artist to Improve Public Health Outcomes for Residents?

BY NICOLE CRUTCHFIELD

106 Case Study: Chattanooga, TN - Connecting Public Art, Fitness, and Storm Water Management

110 Top Five Lessons for Better Government Artist Residencies

BY JULIE S. BURROS AND KARIN GOODFELLOW

114 People-Centered Policing Through the Arts

BY MARTY POTTENGER

122 Cultural Roots, Regrowth, and Resilience

BY MAYOR MITCHELL LANDRIEU

126 Case Study: Greensboro, NC - Connecting Neighborhoods through Public Art

130 Community Building via Public Art in Public Housing

BY DAVID HANEY

134 How Can Working with the Federal Government Advance Creative Placemaking Locally?

BY JENNIFER HUGHES

Chapter 5: Arts + Physical Infrastructure

140 Cultural Building Projects: Guidelines for Planning

BY JOANNA WORONKOWICZ

144 Case Study: Jackson, MS - Designing and Activating Public Space

148 Five Lessons Learned for a Successful Public Art Project

BY PATRICIA WALSH

152 Case Study: Wilson, NC - Restoring Folk Art Is Creating Jobs and Revitalizing a Downtown

156 A Home for Artists, an Anchor for Community

BY COLIN HAMILTON

160 Case Study: Hamilton, OH - Bringing Historic Structures Back to Life through Artists' Housing

164 Artisan Businesses and Equitable Neighborhood Development: An Important Formula

BY ILANA PREUSS

Chapter 6: Arts + Community Development Organizations

172 Building through the Arts: With, for and as Neighbors to Our Communities

BY AVIVA KAPUST

178 How Can a CDC (or the City) Effectively Work with Artists to Drive Revitalization?

BY KIRA STRONG

182 Case Study: Opa-Locka, FL - Embracing Arts as a Key Community Development Strategy

186 Developing Communities through Creative Placemaking

BY ERIK TAKESHITA

190 Case Study: Phoenix, AZ - Reimagining Vacant Spaces through Temporary Art Projects

194 Moving from Theory to Practice: Exploring the Uptake of the Arts by Community Development Practitioners

BY LYZ CRANE

200 Creative Placemaking: Toward a Sustainable Practice

BY MARIA ROSARIO JACKSON

204 Credits