

PUBLIC ART PROJECT: "GATE WAVE"

Artist | Volkan Alkanoglu

BACKGROUND

2011

Public Art Commission selected “Gate Wave” from initial 60 submissions to be installed at new Transit Center. City Council approved “Gate Wave” and a budget of $75,000 from dedicated Prop C Local Return Funds.

2017

Transit Center design finalized; sculpture cost increased to $275,000 due to labor and material cost increases.

2021

Transit Center nears completion, final design moves artwork behind building. City Council directs staff to find a new location, allocates $200,000 additional.

2024

City Council approves Public Art Commission recommendation for Gateway Parkette as new location, completes total funding of $275,000 from John Parsons Public Art Fund.

2024-2025

Verified structural suitability of Parkette and myriad easements and utilities with Denn Engineering survey and underground imaging.
