Below are a few alternative Mission and Vision Statements for the CAC for discussion at our meeting tomorrow as a Blue Folder Item.

I believe that an unanimously agreed upon version of these two statements should be included in our By-Laws which need revision following Ordinance No. 3278-24 changing the name and scope of the Public Art Commission to the Cultural Arts Commission.

1.Vision Statement

To shape Redondo Beach into a vibrant coastal community where arts and culture are woven into everyday life—engaging residents of all ages, inspiring youth creativity, and enriching local businesses—so that the city becomes widely recognized as a place where creativity, innovation, and quality of life flourish together.

Mission Statement

To strengthen and expand the role of arts and culture in Redondo Beach by fostering meaningful connections among residents, local businesses, and artists; creating accessible opportunities for youth to explore and participate in the arts; supporting high-quality cultural programming; and cultivating an environment where creativity contributes to economic vitality, community identity, and long-term cultural growth.

2.)Vision Statement

To foster a cohesive and culturally enriched community in Redondo Beach where the arts are accessible, valued, and reflective of the city's character, enhancing quality of life for residents and supporting a vibrant local economy.

Mission Statement

To advise and collaborate with community stakeholders to advance arts and culture in Redondo Beach by supporting local artists, engaging youth in creative opportunities, partnering with businesses, and promoting diverse cultural programming that strengthens community identity and economic vitality.

3.)Vision Statement

To transform Redondo Beach into a leading coastal hub for arts and culture—where creativity energizes public life, inspires the next generation, and becomes a defining element of the city’s identity and appeal.

Mission Statement

To ignite a cultural evolution in Redondo Beach by championing ambitious arts initiatives, activating partnerships with local businesses, and expanding opportunities for youth engagement—building a dynamic, inclusive arts ecosystem that elevates community pride, attracts regional attention, and unlocks the city’s full creative potential.

4.)Vision Statement

To cultivate a dynamic and culturally rich community in Redondo Beach where the arts are an essential part of everyday life—engaging residents, inspiring youth, and enhancing the city’s identity as a vibrant and creative coastal destination.

Mission Statement

To advance arts and culture in Redondo Beach by fostering collaboration among residents, businesses, and artists; expanding access to meaningful cultural experiences; supporting youth creativity and participation; and championing high-quality programming that strengthens community identity, enriches quality of life, and contributes to economic vitality.

5.)Vision Statement

To cultivate a dynamic and culturally rich community in Redondo Beach where the arts are an essential part of everyday life—engaging residents, inspiring youth, and enhancing the city’s identity as a vibrant and creative coastal destination.

Mission Statemen

To advance arts and culture in Redondo Beach by fostering collaboration among residents, businesses, and artists; expanding access to music, performing arts, galleries, art fairs, and community events; supporting the development of future cultural assets including museum opportunities; and creating meaningful pathways for youth participation—while championing high-quality programming that strengthens community identity, enriches quality of life, and contributes to economic vitality.

6.Vision Statement

To transform Redondo Beach into a leading coastal hub for arts and culture—where creativity energizes public life, inspires the next generation, and becomes a defining element of the city’s identity and appeal.

Mission Statement

To ignite a cultural evolution in Redondo Beach by championing diverse and high-quality creative experiences; supporting a thriving ecosystem of performances, exhibitions, and community events; fostering partnerships with local businesses and artists; and expanding opportunities for youth engagement—building a dynamic, inclusive arts environment that elevates community pride, strengthens economic vitality, and unlocks the city’s full creative potential.
