Statement of Work Agreement Redondo Beach "Enhanced Response Pilot Program"

OVERVIEW OF PROGRAM

The Enhanced Response Pilot Program focuses on individuals with a criminal history who are experiencing homelessness in Redondo Beach. The Enhanced Response Pilot Program assists such individuals to curtail any criminal cycle of drug, alcohol, quality of life, and theft offenses by meeting misdemeanor defendants in Los Angeles County on designated "Homeless Court" dates to offer accessible community services and legal services.

If a defendant is willing to accept services and work with either PATH and/or the designated housing navigator with Harbor Interfaith, then their cases may be diverted and potentially dismissed with a stay of adjudication.

If not, then punishment will be sought to deter the continuing impact on the community. The program impacts not only the people experiencing homelessness, but also impacts the residents and community.

Initiation for this program began in June 2019 under the current Redondo Beach – Harbor Interfaith contract. Under that contract, the prosecution has utilized Lila Omura, of Harbor Interfaith, in the role as the outreach/case manager/housing navigator for the Enhanced Response Pilot Program.

Ongoing implementation of the Enhanced Response Pilot Program by the City of Redondo Beach requires specific work program designations of personnel in the office of the City Attorney and the Police Department. In the office of the City Attorney, two Deputy City Prosecutors are designated to the LA County Court diversion efforts. In the Police Department, a Police Officer from the Community Services Unit is designated to homelessness outreach and the LA County Court diversion efforts.

The Redondo Beach Prosecutors issue referrals of homeless individuals with misdemeanor offenses to begin the process of SERVICES and HOUSING connections as well as assisting with structuring court orders based on an individual's needs. The assigned Navigator from Harbor Interfaith Services or PATH (People Assisting the Homeless) will attend a court hearing once a month on the 3rd Wednesday of the month which is the designated "homeless court" date for Redondo Beach. The Navigator will assist each individual with services based on the individual's needs with the goals of permanent housing, rehabilitation, and becoming a productive member of the community.
